“Head Chef Rajesh Rao visits the House of Commons”

Washington Mayfair Hotels' Head Chef Rajesh Rao is moving up in the world of politics! The final of Rajesh has been personally invited to join the panel as a judge.

The Tiffin Cup has a history of judging great food and this year curry dishes throughout the UK will be tested and who better to assist than Rajesh Rao, a connoisseur of this dish.

Over 50 restaurants were nominated by MP's across the Country to become crowned the Tiffin Cup winner for 2007. Ten restaurants have been short listed and invited to cook-in at the House of Commons. The proceeds from this event will go to the Chance to Shine Charity.

Rajesh and the other judges, including celebrities such as Ainsley Harriet will taste and score the finalists curry dishes during the course of the evening. Rajesh, being of Indian heritage, knows a thing or two about curry so impressing his taste buds will be a tall order.
