“Enjoy Yourself”

Welcome to Sanook Spa. The word Sanook means “Enjoy Yourself” in Thai and the Sanook symbol has been chosen for two reasons. Hands in the Hindu religion are very important and descriptive in dance and life. During treatments the hands are very important from a comfort and pampering perspective.

A lit candle is a symbol of Diwali, a very important religious festival in the Hindu Calendar (festival of lights). During a treatment a lit candle encourages relaxation, warmth and caring. The Sanook symbol is a graphic representation of hands praying and the form also looks like the flame from a candle, making it an ideal representation for Sanook Spa.

Sanook Spa is home to a glass cased treatment room suspended over our swimming pool to truly enjoy the Feng Shui experience. Work out in our fully equipped gym with individual TV's and music, relax in our sauna or enjoy an array of treatments in our therapy rooms with our experienced Therapists.

Whichever experience you choose, Sanook Spa is the place to release the inner beauty and glow in you. Relax, re-group and above all enjoy!
